(child's full name).....age.....

declare that the aforementioned children are not and have not been the subject of a child protection plan coordinated by Children's Social Care Services in the UK, and hereby give the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (registered charity numbers 216401 and SC037717) and its subsidiary, NSPCC Trading Company Limited (company number 890446), (together the "NSPCC") permission to use any still and/or moving image being video footage, photographs and/or frames and/or audio footage depicting my/our children named above taken by an NSPCC film crew on behalf of the NSPCC on Wednesday 18th June 2014 for the following uses:

- ³⁵/₁₇ NSPCC/Safe Network campaigns incorporating online video, video tapes, audio CDs, CD Roms, DVDs, and other similar communications and data storage media yet to be invented;
- ³⁵/₁₇ leaflets, information packs, flyers, parenting advice publications, the NSPCC/Safe Network websites or any website owned by the NSPCC and related micro-sites as well as any other suitable publicity purposes;
- ³⁵/₁₇ other fundraising and promotional materials, educational materials, research materials, lecture outlines, materials required for teaching purposes, for reference in the NSPCC Video Library and NSPCC Photographic Library; and
- ³⁵/₁₇ any other material that the NSPCC deems furthers its charitable objects.

Is there anything about the child's history which you think the NSPCC should know about before a moving or still image is taken?
