

Dear parents,

It occurred to me that the attached letter might give you a bit more information about the event on Saturday - its the letter that was sent out to the children from the DioSing! project. Looking forward to seeing you all tomorrow at All Saints with ALL costume, preferably wearing the bits that haven't been handed over to Stacey - arrive as soon after 4.30 so we can make sure everyone is ready in costume to start rehearsing at 4.45pm sharp, free performance at 5.40pm which you are encouraged to attend if you can! Please contact me if there are any problems.

Thank you,
Emma
