

Dear Parents,

Happy New Year! The first rehearsal back got us off to a good start and we have a couple of important services this term. Rachel Ross, the rector at All Saint's is sadly leaving us, so we are going to sing at her leaving service on Sunday 23rd February. Also we have been invited to sing with the boy trebles and songmen at Leicester Cathedral on Sunday 2nd March (the following Sunday - more details will follow nearer the time.)

Please take a look at the calendar page on our website

<http://loughchoir.co.uk/calendar/> and make a note of all the dates.

Please don't forget to let me know as soon as you can if your child is unable to attend a rehearsal, service or concert.

All best wishes, and see you on Wednesday,

Emma Trounson
