

Dear parents/carers,

Just a reminder that the children are singing this Sunday morning at All Saints. Please arrive 9.30am the service starts at 10.30am you are, as always most welcome to attend - otherwise pick up after the service is at 11.45am. Uniform is as usual - white shirt and black trousers. Don't worry if they weren't able to attend this Wednesday, the music is very well known to them.

I am going to send another message about Captain Noah performances in June!!!

Thanks very much and see you on Sunday unless I hear otherwise!

Best wishes,
Emma
