

Hi all,

Just a reminder that Sing Christmas is today and for those of you whose children are coming, I've found out the Cathedral choristers won't be in uniform, so there is no need to wear our choir uniform as previously stated. They can wear something casual and comfortable, but which doesn't make a noise! (No squeaky trainers!) There will be a break in between the rehearsal and performance so if you like they could bring a sandwich. There will be squash and biscuits provided anyway. Please aim to arrive between 4.15pm and 4.45pm at St Martin's House. Pick up at the end will be from 8.05pm. The show will be broadcast live 7-8pm on BBC Radio Leicester. It looks likely, as last year, there will be some space for parents to sit at the back of the hall during the broadcast and by all means sing along!

Thanks and see some of you later!

Emma
