

Dear parents/carers,

Just a couple of reminders concerning the RSCM festival this Sunday:

Please arrive at 1.45pm so we can establish a meeting point and seat the children appropriately before the start of the rehearsal. This is at St Mary's Church in Hinckley, the postcode is LE10 1DW. The service starts at 5pm if you' like to attend, otherwise please collect your child at 6.30 from the meeting point inside the church.

If you have not brought the slip back yet please do so on Sunday. Your child will not be able to take part without that permission slip as it is part of our requirements.

Uniform is as usual, black bottoms and shoes, white shirt (long sleeved with a collar preferably.) Bows and bow ties provided.

After next Wednesday's rehearsal Malcolm will be giving a fun and informal demonstration of the organ, so please stay if you are interested.

Thanks and best wishes,
Emma Trounson
