

Hi all,

Thank you for last week's performance at DMH - it was fantastic and I was so proud of the choir - they were all so superb! I thought I would reiterate details for this Wednesday's performance at All Saints:

The performance at All Saints will take place on Wednesday 29th June during normal choir time. We arrive in time to start rehearsing at 4.45. The performance will start at 6.00pm and will finish at 6.20pm. You're welcome to come and watch (free entry with retiring collection for the children's choir and the church.)

Roles

[The list of which child is playing which role has been deleted.]

Costumes

The children will wear simple costumes, as follows:

Those playing Noah and his family: please wear jeans and coloured tshirt for male characters or checked shirt (much like in Joseph) and female characters, please wear coloured skirts and coloured tops or a colourful dress.

Those playing animals: I will provide various masks, please could you provide black tops and black trousers or leggings and shoes - if not a black top then plain, grey or brown or something animal coloured!

Thank you and best wishes,
Emma
