

Dear parents/carers,

Happy New Year! Thank you for all your support last term - everything we did was a great success and you should all be very proud of your children and all that they achieved. I certainly am! Sing Christmas was absolutely brilliant and they sounded great singing with the Cathedral Choir.

The choir starts back tomorrow ie Wednesday 7th Jan at the usual time of 4.45pm-6.15pm. So far this term we have 2 services in the Calendar: Sunday 8th February and Sunday 8th March both 9.30am-12pm at All Saints. Please put these in your diaries and do let me know asap if your child will be unable to attend - this will help with part distribution and indeed of any rehearsals they will be unable to attend as far in advance as possible. Do watch this space as other performance opportunities may crop up and of course I will keep you updated as the term progresses. We also have a new rector at All Saints and I'm sure you and the children will meet Rev'd Wendy in due course.

I'm really excited about the progress the existing choir is making and about potential new recruits from DioSing!. If you know anyone who is thinking of joining the choir, this would be an ideal time to join because we will be learning new music so everyone will be at the same stage.

Best wishes,
Emma
