

Dear all,

THANK YOU

Thank you for your support over this last term, The King in the Car Park performances were a great success and our contribution to Wendy's collation service went very well too. The children sang and behaved brilliantly - they were a credit to me, to the church and to the organisation of DioSing!. I would like to take this opportunity to formally thank the staff and volunteers who work hard to ensure the choir is the success that it is: particularly those who provide support week in week out, but also those who help occasionally for trips and events. If anyone feels they could offer their time and/or expertise in any way myself or Malcolm would be happy to hear from you. I am excited about the future of the choir going forward with Wendy's full support, as I believe we can reach new levels of excellence in terms of the choir's quality, reputation and as a tool for worship and mission in All Saints.

REHEARSALS

There is NO rehearsal this Wednesday - we start back on Wednesday 2nd September at the usual time of 4.45pm-6.15pm when we will be welcoming a few new recruits to our ranks who have just completed a year of DioSing!. Keep checking the calendar on the website for updates over the holidays!

LOST PROPERTY - a drinks bottle was found following the performance at All Saints last Wednesday, it is a clear bottle with 'Star rider' and a picture of a child on some sort of bike I think! Malcolm has it so get in contact with me or him if you want it back!

PRESS COVERAGE

The press coverage of the KitCP premiere was great - here are some links for you to enjoy. Here are the pictures from the Leicester Mercury:

I have attached the video from ITV central but please don't put this on social media (as I'm not sure we're allowed to...) You can download it for your own viewing pleasure though! Or you can view it at this private youtube link I have set up which might be easier: [Link deleted—ask Emma if you need the link]

I will contact you before the start of term and will be updating the calendar very soon, but otherwise have a great summer everyone!

Thanks and best wishes,
Emma
